Removed From Home of Privation Too Late to Save

Father Supports Invalid Wife Day of Wild Anxiety Spent by Orchestra Adds to Beauty o and Four Children on $7

Lying upon a little white cot in the children's ward of the Memorial Hospital is the pathetic figure of a wan pital is the pathetic figure of a wan and undersized nine-year-old girt, suffering the last agonies of tetanus. Though for thirty-six hours she has been surrounded by every possible comfort and attention by nurses and physicians, efforts to save her life have been vain, and it was said last night that she could not live twenty-four hours.

The dying girl is Fannie Schwartz, daughter of Isaac Schwartz, of 10s Tenth Street, Fulton. She was taken to the hospital Tuesday night, but the discase had made too muth headway for the skill of physicians and nurses to be of any avail.

Rms Spilnter Into Foot.

Lockjaw is said to have been cauwhen the child ran a huge spinner into her right foot while playing at her home. The father removed what he thought to be all of the Spike, but examination after she had been carried to the Memorial disclosed two inches of wood to still be in the wound.

The home was visited by several charitably disposed persons. The moth-

Redd Brothers Are Suspected, and Fitzgerald Will Also Be Arrested.

Mr. Charles recovered his horse and buggy, and was duly thankful. He now recitize his experiences in the wildx of old Powhatan as an old soldier tells tales of the battlefields on which he has fought, bled and died. It was not known at that time who had stolen the transportation outlit, but Ferrscant Bailey had not forgotion, and he has worked. The three ackroes are believed to he the thieves. Warrants were executed on the two fields yesterday by betterive Beiton, and Sergeant Bailey will serve the warrant on Jake in Newport News this morning.

Yesterday morning his two brothers,
Charles and William Palmore, went to Ocean View to search for him, and
C. W. Yaughan, hardware dealer, of 18
East Broad Street, by whom the lad had been employed for several years, sought out Major Werner and requested his aid in locating the boy.
Clay explained his delay in missing the train, and said that he spent the night with a boatman at Ocean View, to whom he told his misfortune. Being economically inclined, he waited for
